

7 p.m., Fri., Sept. 3 — FREE!
Peace Center of Delaware County
1001 Old Sproul Rd., Springfield, PA

Labor Day Weekend Showing
Bread & Roses

2000, Starring Adrian Brody and Pilar Padilla
106 minutes, Rated R for strong language and brief nudity, English and Spanish with English and Spanish subtitles.

Inspired by a true story...Bread & Roses is an award-winning dramatic film by social realist filmmaker Ken Loach (The Wind That Shakes the Barley). A timely depiction of undocumented migrant workers seeking justice, the plot is based on the Justice for Janitors campaign of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU).

Maya, a young Mexican woman, makes a harrowing cross-border journey into Los Angeles to join her older sister Rosa who works in some of the city's largest corporate offices through a non-union janitorial service. An organizing campaign begins; workers and management collide. Surrounded by the machinations of big business, the fight by these migrant workers threatens their livelihood, family, and risks their expulsion from the country.

The phrase "bread and roses" comes from the 1912 textile labor strike in Lawrence, Massachusetts, which united dozens of immigrant communities, led primarily by women, under the leadership of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Peace Center of Delaware County
First-Friday Film Series

Springfield Friends Meetinghouse (off the corner of Old Marple and S. Sproul Rds., behind Mr. Car Wash)

7 p.m. — Free — Large Screen

Doors open 6:30 p.m. for light refreshments.

Directions: www.delcopenacecenter.org, or call (610) 544-1818

Cosponsored by Brandywine Peace Community

COMING
 FRIDAY,
 OCTOBER 1

